The third prize of Rs1 lakh was given to GOD by R Ravichandran, who hails from Tamil Nadu. The silent film underlines the value of potable water.

during the first edition of the competition in 2015, the commission only received about 40 entries. However, in its tenth edition, more than 300 entries were received from different parts of the country in 2024.

"This shows how this event has significantly gained traction as people across the country are choosing to make films in various Indian languages, making people aware of various human rights issues," the chairperson stated.

...expert and columnist Suhel Seth, the chief guest at the event, emphasised the deep cultural ties of advertising. "Advertising is nothing but the barometer of a country's cultural disposition. It is incorrect to believe that it is only a reflection of consumer habits because consumerism is rooted in culture," he remarked. He pointed out that Indian festivals like Diwali, Holi, Eid and Christmas shape consumer spending, underlining how advertising is intrinsically linked to tradition and lifestyle.

Seth also noted a shift in the nature of advertising, lamenting the loss of humour in modern-day commercials. "My biggest regret is that humour has disappeared from Indian advertising. Great advertising is not about budgets but about engagement—it's about preparing the ground for a future purchase," he said.

Drawing a striking comparison, he referred to the recently concluded

Man gets 20 years in Nuh jail for raping minor

GURUGRAM, MARCH 26

A 20-year prison sentence, coupled with a Rs 1.5 lakh fine, was handed down by Additional Sessions Judge Ashwani Kumar on Wednesday to a man convicted of raping a 15-year-old minor. Convict Chandan had blackmailed and raped the victim after capturing obscene images of her in 2021.

The case was registered on September 24, 2021, when the victim's parent filed a formal complaint with the Manesar Women Police Station, alleging that Chandan had taken illicit photographs of their daughter while she was bathing and subsequently used those images to blackmail and rape her. A FIR was registered under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act.

Following the FIR, the police arrested the accused who was identified as Chandan, a native of Alinagar village in Bihar. After arresting the accused, the police gathered crucial evidence and witness testimonies. This material was then compiled into a detailed charge sheet to present in the court. — OC

Tourism to become largest contributor

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, MARCH 26

Union Tourism Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat has called for the expansion of India's tourism sector, asserting that it will soon become the largest contributor to the country's GDP. Speaking at the Tourism Sustainability Summit 2025, organised by FHRAI, Shekhawat said, "Tourism is the growth engine of India. With our economy growing rapidly, the tourism sector has immense potential to match this pace."

He emphasised the urgent need for climate resilitourism, warning that climate change poses serious challenges. "Glaciers are shrinking and this demands immediate intervention. Sustainable tourism is the only way forward," he said.

Additional Secretary, Ministry of Tourism, Suman Billa, highlighted the role of artifi-
